Hot in a Political Club.

Chicago, Nov. 26.—Revolvers were drawn, a rough and tumble fight was engaged in and a score of policemen were called to quell a disturbance at the election by the Fifth Ward Republican club. No one was seriously injured. The antagonization men, led by former Alderman Edward R. Litzinger, finally withdrew from the hall and elected a ticket which will be used in a contest against the organization ticket before the Republican county central committee.
